

Brandon Stauch, colourised postcard, early 1900s

Ouse Hotel from the river, postcard, early 1900s

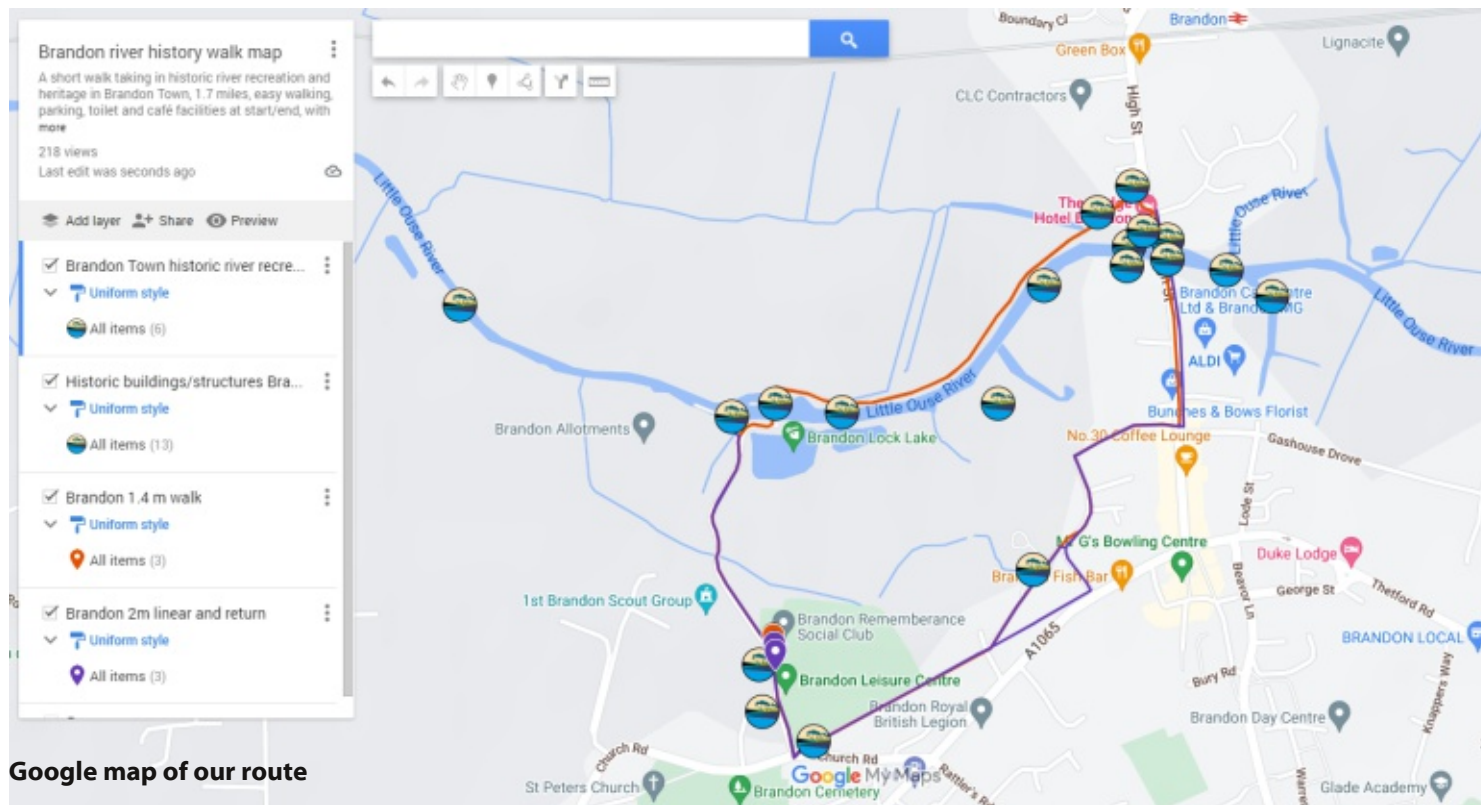

Brandon River History Walk: Tales of recreation & trade, guided walk 15 Oct 2024

Old Brandon Bridge, postcard, early 1900s

More information on Brandon's history:

History of Brandon from Town Council <https://tinyurl.com/BTCHist>
 Discoveries at Stauch Meadow <https://tinyurl.com/HSSStMead>
 Old Ordnance Survey maps <https://maps.nls.uk/view/120854390>
 Visit Brandon Heritage Centre (April-Nov) <https://tinyurl.com/BHCentre>
 The Brandon & District Local History Society <https://bdlhs.org/>
 Facebook group, Brandon, Suffolk - Down Memory Lane
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1148869208535674/>
 The river Little Ouse from the Breckland Society (Download) www.brecsoc.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/The-Little-Ouse.pdf
 Brandon Creative Forum, www.facebook.com/BrandonCreativeForum

Google map of our route

See the route on a map, where you can click on the icons to see info on the historic spots:

<https://tinyurl.com/GooglBrandWalk>

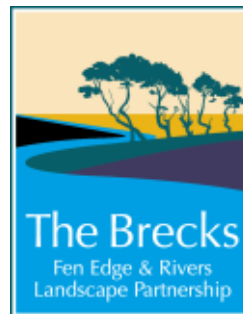

Or point a smartphone camera to the QR code

Brandon Old Bridge & maltings, postcard, early 1900s

One of the river history walks in the Brecks, guided @OSBrecks volunteers, part of the @Pathmakers WalkNorfolk Festival, supported by @TheBrecksLP, The Brecks Fen Edge and Rivers Landscape Partnership Scheme, and @HeritageFundUK. Contact: Imogen Radford, imogen36@googlemail.com or bfer.admin@suffolk.gov.uk. Get in touch if you have watery stories to share:

<https://tinyurl.com/TalesRiverStoriesShare>

L
Regina Palik
with children,
late 1950s,
supplied by George Palik

R
The Avenue
c1900s

Far L Children at the
'Leeches', 1957,
supplied by Pat
Baldwin

