

Celebrating the End of Service (circa 1945), Women's Land Army Hostel

Old Wesleyan Chapel

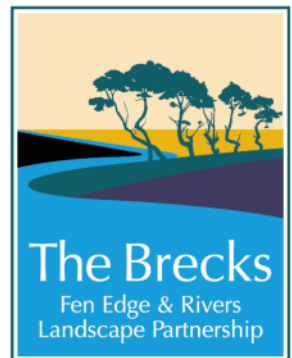

Tales from Lakenheath's waterways: a guided history walk, Thursday 14 March

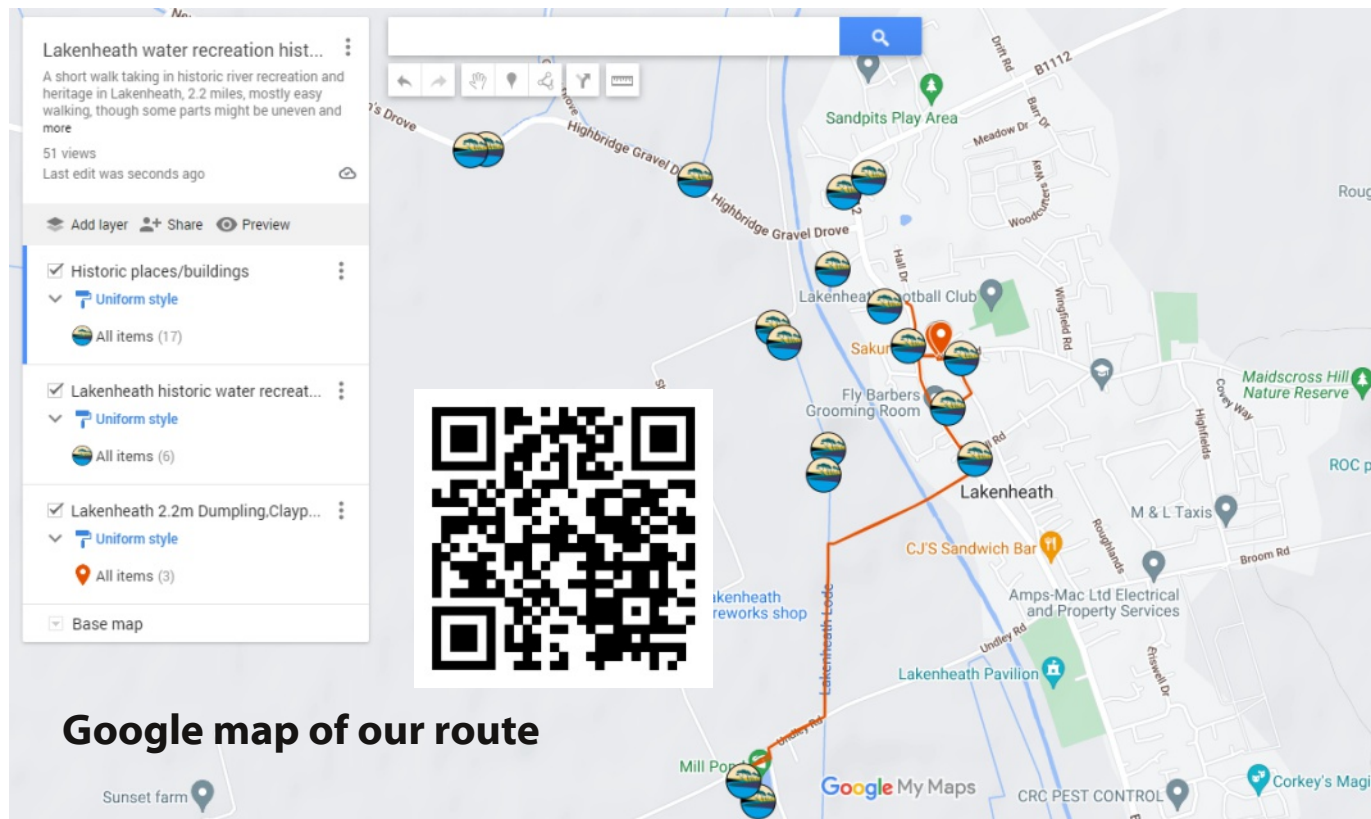

Lakenheath Mill Pond 1947

First of a series of Spring 2024 history walks in the Brecks, run by The Brecks Fen Edge and Rivers Landscape Partnership Scheme @TheBrecksLP supported by @HeritageFundUK, guided by @OSBrecks volunteers

Contact: Imogen Radford, imogen36@googlemail.com
or bfer.admin@suffolk.gov.uk

More information:

History of Lakenheath:

http://lakenheath.onesuffolk.net/lakenheath-heritage/;

<https://tinyurl.com/SDVillLak>

Look at old ordnance survey maps of the area on the National Libraries of Scotland website, for example

<https://tinyurl.com/NLSLak1903>

<https://tinyurl.com/NLSLak1950>

More links from the icons on the Google map.

All photos reproduced by permission of the Lakenheath Heritage Group

See the route on a map, where you can click on the icons to see information about the historic spots: <https://tinyurl.com/LakWalkRoute> or point to the QR code with a smartphone camera

L: Green Dragon in flood, circa 1940s

Middle; Dumpling Bridge

R: Daphne Austin's painting 'The Sea Side at Lakenheath'

